Scholars students in history have to complete:

- Four Honors contract courses in upper-division history courses with a 3.5 average.
  - one course will result in the production of a substantial historiographic essay
  - the other 3 will require 25-page papers at least one of which uses primary sources.